

Story written by: Ludivina B. Bauzon

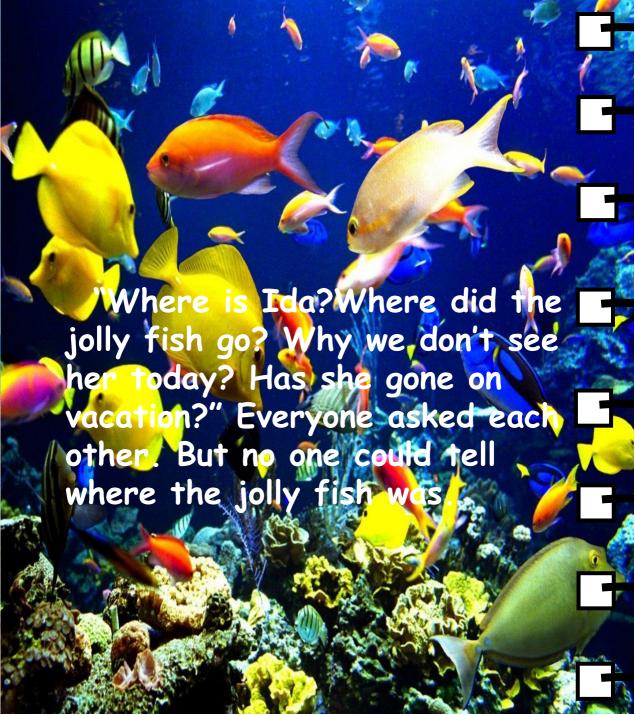

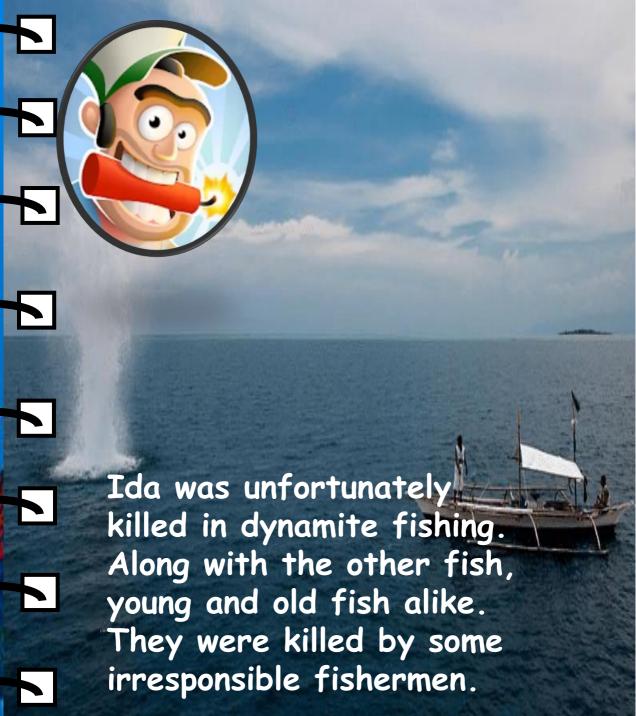

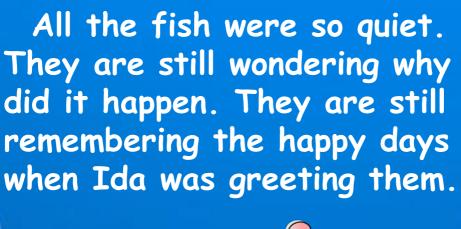

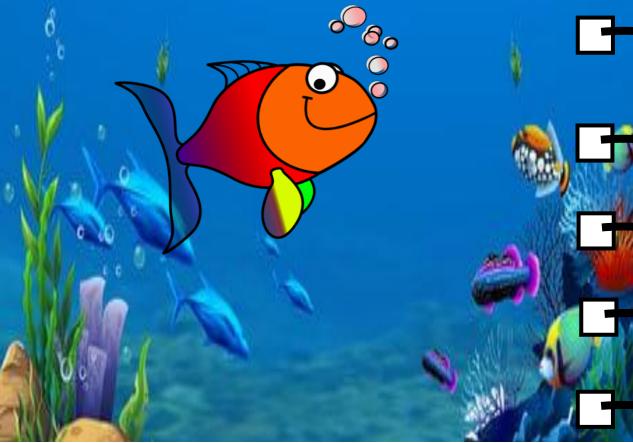

In the next morning, a very sad news greeted them. They heard that Ida will never come anymore. The jolly fish is forever gone.

"We will never forget you Ida" they uttered crying. "Your smiles and giggles will always remain in our memories".

